The landscapes of the desert Southwest are marked by sweeping vistas, exquisite rock formations and a rich palate of colours – an inspiration for this striking end table. The thick solid wood table top echoes the deep earth tones found throughout the Southwest and gives this piece a distinct look. The smooth, clean lines are meant to evoke the peaceful, windswept calm of a desert at dusk, while the gun metal finish adds an extra touch of authenticity and style. Embolden and enliven your home surroundings and discover what generations past have discovered. Contract Quality.
